CSE572-Winter 2020   ORACLE Login

1. Open the Putty and create a session using the following connection strings

    <yourcoyoteid>@jbh3-1.cse.csusb.edu

2. In the Putty terminal window and issue the following ssh <yourcoyoteid>@orafarm.cse.csusb.edu

3. Once you are logged in to orafarm go to your CSE572 directory using the command

4. At the system prompt – type sqlplus

5. You will be see prompts for username and password for ORACLE.

    The ORACLE username is as follows:
                        First letter (in lowercase) of your first name
                        Your full last name (in lowercase)

    The ORACLE password assigned to you consists of first letter (in lower case) of your last name first letter (in lower case) of your first name last four digits of your COYOTE student id and hit return/enter key.

6. Log off from orafarm by typing exit Log off from your terminal.

            Every time you want to run ORACLE just do the steps in this handout.